

A. She is a divorcee.

Q. Where does she live?

A. San Diego, California.

Q. Mrs. Remsberg, earlier you stated that Mr. Doub was survived by a sister, Clara Doub Kepler. Is she living now?

A. No, she is deceased.

Q. And her husband's name was?

A. Luther Kepler.

Q. Is he living?

A. No, he predeceased her.

Q. Did Mrs. Kepler leave any children surviving?

A. Yes, two children. A son, Homer Kepler, and a daughter, Lucy Kepler.

Q. Is the son, Homer, living now?

A. No, he is deceased.

Q. Did he marry?

A. Yes.

Q. What is his wife's name?

A. Hazel Ridenour Kepler.

Q. Is she living?

A. No, she is deceased. She died in January of 1959.

Q. Did she die testate or intestate?

A. Testate.

Q. I show you an instrument filed in these proceedings as Exhibit "D".

Will you examine the same, and state whether or not it is a true copy of Mrs. Kepler's Will.

A. Yes, it is.

(Exhibit "D" filed with the Examiner as evidence, and so marked.)

Q. Mrs. Kepler, by her Will, leaves her residuary estate to Mrs. Naomi Ridenour Palmer, Mrs. Florence Fogle, Paul Willard and Virginia K. Marsh, in equal portions. Is Mrs. Palmer living?

A. Yes, she is living.